Tami,
This will include tribal leaders. I just heard this morning from BBNC that the list is held to 10 individuals. I've had to pair down our list to the following:

Bobby Andrew, Ekwok Tribal Council Spokesman and Nunamta Aulukestai Spokesman
Kim Williams, Nunamta Aulukestai Executive Director and I am 3rd Chief of Curyung Tribal Council
Dennis Andrew, President New Stuyahok Traditional Council & Nunamta Aulukestai Alternate Board Member from New Stuyahok
Jimmy Coopchiak, Togiak Tribal Council Member and Nunamta Aulukestai Board Member
Jack Hobson, President Nondalton Tribal Council
Stacey Rolf, Curyung Tribal Member, Student, Leader of Dillingham City Schools Leadership Assets Youth Coalition (LAYC).

I understand there will be 4 from BBNC is attendance. Not sure who they are since their group is larger too.
It's unfortunate that our entire group could not be in the room to listen to the discussion because we also have the following:
Tom Tilden, Chief Curyung Tribal Council and Nunamta Aulukestai Secretary
Sharon Clark, Tribal Administrator Clarks Point Village Council and Nunamta Aulukestai Treasurer
Lydia Olympic, Tribal Advocate TWS and former President Igiugig Village Council
Christina Salmon, Igiugig Environmental Coordinator and Igiugig Village Council Member
Rachel Sorensen, Curyung Tribal Member and Student Leader of Dillingham City Schools Leadership Assets Youth Coalition (LAYC)
Aurora Hoefflerle, Student Leader of Dillingham City Schools Leadership Assets Youth Coalition (LAYC)
Chelsey Kasayulie, Student Koliganek High School
Pete Andrew, Commercial Fisherman and Board Member Bristol Bay Native Corporation
Frtiz Johnson, Commercial Fisherman
Gary Cline, Aleknagik Tribal Member and Nunamta Aulukestai Permanent Protection Campaign Coordinator
I understand 10 instead of 20 is much more manageable. We've sure come a long way for such an important meeting. Anyway to accomodate a larger group? If not, okay.....

Thank you.

Kim

Hi Kim,

Thanks for the information, what would be helpful to know is if this is BBNC and Curyung or if there are any other entities being represented at this meeting.

Thanks - Tami

Tami and Tom,

We have scheduled a meeting with EPA, Nancy Stoner's Office on March 29th at Noon in combination with Bristol Bay Native Corporation.
